I Like Trees
I like trees because they give us shade.
I like trees because we can read a story under them.
I like trees because we can have a picnic under them.
I like trees because we can sing a song under them.
I like trees because we can play under them.
I like trees because we can see birds in them.
I like trees.