

A NOTE FROM KELLI HILBURN

PROGRAM ADMINISTRATOR

Join us in celebrating I Love to Read month! It's never too early to read to children. In fact, reading aloud to children helps develop the social and emotional skills they need to reach for the stars and be successful in kindergarten and beyond.

To learn more, check out the 10 Minutes Matter material from the Arkansas Department of Human Services and the Raising a Reader series featured later in this month's Buzz for infants, toddlers, and preschoolers. As your child grows, they begin relating to and approaching books differently. With the help of these resources, you can work within each developmental stage to make books fun for your child.

Also, in this edition of the Buzz, there is a new literacy resource from our friends at Child Care Aware of West Central Arkansas. As you keep reading, you'll see details to nominate the next Arkansas Outstanding Early Childhood Professional. You have until February 17, 2023 to nominate a deserving provider so don't wait!

Until next time,

Keei Hilburn

Kelli Hilburn

BETTER BEGINNINGS PROGRAM ADMINISTRATOR DIVISION OF CHILD CARE AND EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Watch the video below to see Arkansas child care providers read the bedtime counting story, Ten Twinkly Stars.

Learn more about the importance of reading aloud to children at least 10 minutes per day by checking out the 10 Minutes Matter material on the Arkansas Department of Human Services website.

Raising A Reader: Babies

It's never too early to read aloud to your child. This resource provides tips on what types of books are best for babies and the importance of highcontrast images for babies' brains.

View Resource

Raising A Reader: Toddlers

Your toddler can now hold books and turn pages! Touching and holding books, even putting books in their mouths, helps them explore all that books have to offer. Use this resource to create an early appreciation for books in your child.

View Resource

Raising A Reader: Preschoolers

Most of the skills your child needs for kindergarten develop naturally through play and reading with you! Learn what language skills your child needs in order to be ready for school through this resource.

View Resource

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Arkansas Outstanding Early Childhood Professional Nomination

LEARNING IS FUN!

Is there a provider in your life that has gone above and beyond for your children? Nominate them to be the 2023 Arkansas Outstanding Early Childhood Professional! You can find the nomination packet here. The nomination deadline is February 17, 2023.

Ages & Stages

Have questions about what development milestones your child is expected to hit? See a detailed list on the Ages & Stages section of our site!

View Ages & Stages

Playing With Language

Child Care Aware of West Central Arkansas is offering a book full of activities that will help children notice and manipulate the sounds of language. Download the book for free today and bring these activities into your home!

Download the Book

Parenting with Purpose: Healthy Media for Very Young Children Thursday, February 16, 2023, 12:30 – 2 p.m.

Learn about using screen time to maximize the positive impact on young children's development while minimizing potential negative effects. You'll also learn about the effects of media use on child health and development, how to identify high-quality media experiences and guidelines for media use in the early years.

Register Now

Parenting with Purpose: Self-Control

Thursday, February 16, 2023, 1 – 2:30 p.m.

Learn what self-control is, why it's important to a child's development, and strategies to support the development of self-control in children via Zoom.

Register Now

WHAT IS Concernsion of the second sec

Better Beginnings means better opportunities. Investing in quality child care for all Arkansas children creates better opportunities for our children, families, workforce and communities.

M) 🔬

better beginnings

istag

Better Beginnings is Arkansas's tiered quality rating improvement system for child care, early education and school-age programs that have gone above and beyond the state minimum requirements. Better Beginnings is administered by the Arkansas Department of Human Services Division of Child Care and Early Childhood Education.

Better Beginnings | DCCECE, Attn: Better Beginnings, PO Box 1437, Slot S150, Little Rock, AR 72203-1437

Unsubscribe info@arbetterbeginnings.com

Update Profile |Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent byinfo@arbetterbeginnings.comin collaboration with

Try email marketing for free today!